Discovering Anglicanism Course

includes

15 Online Classes

This series of 15 brief classes is designed to inform the curious, the catechist, and the committed about Anglicanism.

This course answers questions commonly asked by those who are unfamiliar with the Anglican expression of Christianity.

This course also serves as a way to help busy pastors and church planters instruct parishioners who are preparing to be Confirmed in an Anglican church.

And, this course provides an opportunity for those who have been Anglicans for a long time to clarify and deepen their knowledge about their beloved church.

Class topics include:
